Revised Physical Activity Readiness Questionnaire (rPAR-Q)

Par-Q is designed to help you help yourself. For most people, physical activity should not pose any problem or hazard. PAR-Q has been designed to identify the small number of adults for whom physical activity might be inappropriate or those who should have medical advice concerning the type of activity most suitable for them. Common sense is your best guide in answering these few questions. Please read them carefully and check the box that is appropriate for you.

Yes No

- O O Has your doctor every said you have a heart condition and recommended only medically approved physical activity?
- O O Do you have chest pain brought on by physical activity?
- O O Have you developed chest pain in the past month?
- O O Do you lose consciousness or lose your balance as a result of dizziness?
- O O Do you have a bone or joint problem that could be aggravated by the proposed physical activity?
- O O Is your doctor currently prescribing medication for your blood pressure or heart condition?
- O Are you aware, through your own experience or a doctor's advice, of any other reason why you should not exercise without medical approval?

NOTE: If you 1) answer YES to any question, or 2) are pregnant, or 3) are 70 years of age or older, consult your doctor before increasing your physical activity level. Failure to do so may increase your injury/health risk. If you have a temporary illness, postpone physical activity level. Failure to do so may increase your injury/health risk. If you have a temporary illness, postpone physical activity.
